1 + 1 = More

Qwest and CenturyLink.
Two great companies coming together for the right reason: your business.

Now that we've joined forces, Qwest and CenturyLink together are even better positioned to do our part as your telecommunications partner. In the months ahead, we'll be bringing you more smart, affordable solutions that take advantage of true nationwide connectivity across our coast-to-coast, 190,000-mile, high-capacity fiber network.

Even though we've become larger, we've developed a new business model designed to keep us more in touch with your needs. You'll now have a regional manager available to work closely with your individual business. And, of course, we will continue to provide you with the same quality service from the local people you've come to know and rely on.

Let's see more what we can do together.

Effective July 3, 2012 CenturyLink will begin collecting an Access Recovery Charge as a way to recover the costs of providing access to the telephone network. This surcharge has been authorized by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) and will be $.50 for single line business subscribers per line per month and $1.00 for multi-line business subscribers per line per month. If you have questions or concerns regarding the Access Recovery Charge, please contact CenturyLink at 1-877-908-9654 or contact your designated account representative.

Effective with your June 2012 bill, the monthly charge per access line to recover the costs of government-directed relocation of network facilities in Utah will be increased to $0.29. This rate will remain in effect for the next 11 months.
