Re: In the Matter of WaterPro Inc.'s Application for Culinary Water Rate Case;
Docket No. 16-2443-01

Dear Mr. Jensen-Peterson,

The Public Service Commission (“PSC”) issued a tariff approval letter on August 17, 2018, requesting WaterPro Inc. (“WaterPro”) file a new tariff reflecting the approved interconnection fee and the August 24, 2018 effective date. On August 22, 2018, WaterPro filed a copy of its approved Tariff No. 2 “reflecting the approved interconnection[] fee with the August 24, 2018 effective date.” All of the pages of WaterPro’s Tariff No. 2 are marked with “Date Issued/Revised: September 2017.” On August 27, 2018, the Division of Public utilities filed an action request response stating it had found no changes in WaterPro’s tariff from what had been approved by the PSC.

While the connection fees on page 3 of WaterPro’s Tariff No. 2 correctly reflect the approved tariff rates, the “Date Issued/Revised:” footer on this page has not been updated to reflect the actual revision effective date of August 24, 2018. In order to avoid confusion regarding the effective date of WaterPro’s rates on page 3, and as required by Utah Administrative Code R746-405-2, Format and Construction of Tariffs,<sup>1</sup> the PSC requests that WaterPro file a new tariff sheet page 3 with the correct “Date Issued/Revised:” footer reflecting the PSC-approved effective date.

Sincerely,

/s/ Gary L. Widerburg
PSC Secretary
