

Map of Proposed Water System

- Denotes outline of service area. This area is currently excluded for receiving services from the only other water provider in the area. The lots to be served are not served or planned to be served by the North Fork Special Services District.
- Denote locations of water lines and sources. The water spring and lines have existed in the shown format since at least 1960.

- Denotes outline of the proposed service area. This area is currently excluded for receiving services from the only other water provider in the area. The lots to be served are not served or planned to be served by the North Fork Special Services District.
- Denote area served by North Fork Special Services District. The NFSSD does not provide service are have any water lines across the parcels that may be serviced by the proposed water company.

